Introduction to LEED and Green Buildings for Existing Commercial Buildings

NAPE- Philadelphia 76 is sponsoring this one-day learning opportunity. This is an introduction to Green Building and the LEED for existing building program. Attendees will gain an understanding of what makes a non-residential commercial building "green." Low and no-cost ideas for your buildings will be discussed.

The presenter, Richard Neal, is the Chief Engineer of the National Geographic Society's headquarters building in Washington D.C. Richard has been certified by the U.S. Green Buildings Council as an LEED Accredited Professional. He is a past national president of the National Association of Power Engineers. He has been integrally involved in attaining his buildings' LEED EB Silver certification. Richard's real-world, hands-on experience coupled with his easy style of presenting will make for an enjoyable and informative day.
